Excused: Gardenier.

The minutes for August 31, 2005, were approved.

Public Comment
*Graduate student Ross Best objected to ASUM’s retreat being held out of town and not being announced to the public for participation. He considers it to be a meeting and, as such, open to the public. *Dining Services’ Marketing Manager Elliot Westwater welcomed Senate to a new year, gave them a coupon for a free lunch at the Food Zoo, and asked them to complete the survey and return it to him.

The Chair recognized the presence of Senators Epperson, Cox, Duncan and Bissell.

*Kristine Csorosz distributed fliers in Lou Ann Crowley’s absence. Crowley is a mayoral candidate. Senators were encouraged to vote their choice in the upcoming mayoral primary.

President’s Report
a. Ben Vandeven talked about plans for an Aber Day celebration next Spring, the object being to create a new tradition unite the Missoula and University communities in Aber Day activities.
b. The draft of the student regent application will be circulated, after which the position will be advertised.
c. Cederberg’s parking committee resolution is being postponed. His idea for the resolution comes from students feeling uninformed about changes in campus parking that took place over the summer.
d. Further information about the crew boat will be forthcoming.
e. Senators were asked to talk to Brad if interested in attending the Board of Regents meeting in Billings September 21-23.

Vice President’s Report
a. The following committee appointments were moved and approved with no objection (Exhibit A): Radio Board - Kim Pappas; SPA - Kris Goss, Jesse Mahugh; ASUM Relations and Affairs - Kris Goss, Jesse Mahugh; COT Affairs - Karisa Drye; Childcare Oversight - Julie Helling.
b. Cederberg and Venetz will represent Senate on KBGA tomorrow morning.
c. Senators were asked to bring their binders to the retreat. Volunteers are needed to distribute neighborhood fliers for the ice cream social.

The Chair recognized the presence of Senators Hogue and Prongua.

d. Committee chairs were asked to pick up their binders. Committees were asked to meet before next week’s Senate meeting.
e. The office hours folder is in the lower right hand drawer at the front desk.
f. Nametags procured by Helling were distributed. Senators were asked to wear them at the Senate meetings and special events.
