President’s Report
a. Athletic Director Jim O’Day reported that Athletics won the President’s Cup last year, which was based on 3/5 academic performance and 2/5 athletic performance. He was pleased with the fact that students are picking up tickets for the games and actually going, not turning around and selling them. Students, the band, and the cheerleaders will all be in the East side section for the first basketball game, which will be November 9 with Colorado State. This is an experiment, with the hope that basketball enthusiasm can be rekindled through student participation in that prime spot. He was happy to report that they have made a contribution toward the Interdisciplinary Science Building being erected on the south end of campus. Athletics is sponsoring a speaker on September 18 at 7 p.m. in Urey Lecture Hall. He invited the Senate to attend and to spread the word to other interested students. He also fielded questions about the program and the players.

b. Leftridge-Fulton moved to form an ad hoc committee called the Print and Communications Committee, as the president may do according to the ASUM Constitution, to brainstorm stories about ASUM groups and agencies, which will be inserted in the Montana Kaimin at a cost of approximately $500/month. Four Senators will be appointed to the committee. A previous question call by Childers-Nalty was objected to by Tabibnejad, but previous question passed on a vote, and the motion to form the committee passed.

c. Leftridge reminded Senators that they signed up to distribute flyers for the ice cream social. He asked them to see him after the meeting to check on their area and pick up materials.

Vice President’s Report
a. Committee appointments and removals were approved as submitted (Exhibit A).

b. Center for Leadership Development workshops geared to student groups will be held regularly the first Thursday of each month starting in October.

c. Senator Nalty will represent ASUM on KBGA radio Thursday morning.

d. Ness asked Senators to identify themselves if they are in their senior year.
