Public Comment
*Dean Couture said the Kaimin reported that he “reprimanded” Senate during the Comment period at the end of the meeting. He said that was reported in error, that he was just making some observances he made during the meeting, and they were not meant to be reprimands at all.
*Kevin Nalty, as a Christian group representative, said that the “preacher” who frequents the Library Mall area is back and plans to be there regularly. While he respects free speech, he would rather see this individual’s views expressed through intelligent dialogue and not just rantings.
*Provost Engstrom reported on the early alert program. Faculty participated in the program, and 100-200 students were notified. His hope is that students and faculty will interact, and that that will result in success for the students in their coursework. He is very pleased with the initial response to the program.

President’s Report
a. Newly-hired Director, Off-Campus Renter Center Denver Henderson introduced himself and spoke about his vision for the Center.
b. Leftridge welcomed Residence Life Director Ron Brunell. Brunell distributed an informational sheet about Residence Life. They recently became the supervisor of the Griz Card program, also. They hope to rewrite their mission statement soon to reflect changes. They rely heavily on student staff to keep their program running smoothly. They are surveying current residents to assess their needs, which may result in some policy changes.
c. SPA Director Rob Harper reported on the voter registration drive, with over 1,500 registered. He thanked the volunteers who helped make it a success. They are discussing a voter guide.
d. UC Director Holt fielded questions about campaign postering as a follow-up to last week’s resolution.
e. A tour of the UC will be held next Wednesday afternoon. Senators were encouraged to be there.
f. The next Board of Regents meeting will be held in Bozeman November 15 and 16. Interested Senators should contact Leftridge.
g. Student Affairs reports will be made next week, as part of the agreement on inflationary indexing.
h. A talk about zoning will be held October 18 at 3:30 p.m. in a meeting room on UC’s third floor.
i. A listening session with Board of Regents member Christian and Commissioner of Higher Education Stearns will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow.
