but all music has holes in it.

rock plops into a pool ripples spread for awhile between the wickers of a basket closings then openings
none with any voice but the rock plops into the pool pool guzzles it delicious low throated gurgle what does the air feel above it child skips a stone into the water it's gone then there's the cackle of a crow the long arrogant wail of a freight train passing this house has holes in it for looking out and in what is the space within this window has flaws in it bubbles where the glass blower paused music that has holes in it, p2 this heart has a valve in it a hole a slow leak

between seed and seed's descent into its instrument

one zero one zero zero shock horror outrage

of the exiled infant bow scratched across gut strings fist in the chest thud

and reverberations

this music has holes in it this house does too big enough for a spaceship for a bomb for a god to drive through all music has holes in it.
