Public Comment
*Election Committee member Rob Welsh commented on the election process and censures.

The Chair recognized the presence of Senator Abaidoo.

*Dean of Students Charles Couture assessed Senate’s effectiveness for Fall and Spring semesters. He was disappointed how personal attacks were prevalent this Spring. He wished them well in the future.
*Senator-elect Allie Harrison thanked Senators for their service and talked about the law and upholding the law, which she hoped would be the case tonight.
*Former senator Chris Healow talked about the grievance that will be coming forward tonight. He felt some Senators voted on previous election issues that were conflicts of interest for them.

President’s Report
a. Cederberg thanked Senators for their service.
b. Senators were reminded of the party to be held at President and Mrs. Dennison’s home.
c. Hagen-Knobloch moved to uphold the Election Committee’s decision regarding expenditure forms. Those who violated the Bylaws by not turning in receipts and/or forms must turn them in by 3 p.m. next Tuesday. The motion passed.
d. A motion by Buchman-Epperson to suspend House Rules to certify election results passed. Pavlish-Epperson moved to certify the election results, since Hagen as Elections Committee Chair was not comfortable approving them because of unresolved issues at the time. Senate passed the motion.
