As part of the Advocacy Campaign to make higher education a priority in Montana, the UFA emphasizes the need for a college education for all as a basic public education right.
c. There will be no Senate meeting 9/23/09 because of the Montana Associated Students and Board of Regents meetings. Senators were asked to indicate their definite intention to attend so that transportation could be arranged. President Fennell encouraged Senators to attend, as the projected 3.2 million dollar deficit will have a variety of negative impacts on students.

d. Applications for the Student Political Action director opening are due 9/18 by 5 p.m. If there are enough candidates, an emergency Senate meeting might need to be called for next week.

e. If there is no emergency meeting, the next Senate meeting will be 9/30. It will be preceded by a tour for Senators of the current “Capture the Moment” photography exhibit by Barbara Koostra, Director of the Montana Museum of Art and Culture. It was agreed to request that the tour start at 5 p.m. instead of 4:30 p.m.

f. President Fennell personally (not on behalf of the Senate) endorsed a statement in support of the October 10th & 11th, 2009 National Equality March on Washington D.C. (Exhibit A) Senator Davis mentioned that three scholarships to attend the event are available.

b. The new designs for the Students First campaign brochure and sticker were projected and will be emailed to Senators. Vice President May hopes to make it a state-wide campaign through the Montana Association of Students (MAS).

c. A signup sheet was passed around so Senators could sign up for their two-hours, per-week office hours which will begin 9/21.

d. Two student groups, the Animé Club and the University Crafters, were invited to share information about their activities. Cody Putzier and Jennifer Feakes spoke about Animé, a particular style of animation from Japan.
