316 PLACE ON MSU HONOR ROLL

Forty-one students earned a straight-A average for spring quarter at Montana State University, Missoula, according to the Honor Roll released by the Registrar's Office.

A straight-A average means that a student has earned a grade index of 4.0. The index is computed by multiplying the number of credits that a student carried by the number of grade points he earns and dividing by the number of credits. The grade A is given four grade points; B, three; C /, two and a half; C, two; D, one; and F, none.

A total of 316 students placed on the Honor Roll. To be eligible, a student must have either a minimum of 54 grade points with an index of three or a minimum of 42 grade points with an index of three and a half.
