Public Comment

- Sean Foot and Michael Blitz, Neighborhood Ambassadors, came to give an update on the Sunday Sweepers, the Fleet of Rakes, and Recognizing Awesome Neighbors programs. They passed out the new Neighborhood Newsletter and talked about new winter weatherization projects offered for the neighborhood.

- Deborah Lombardi, MontPIRG Board member, came to give an update on this year’s elections and the outcome of the outreach campaign that MontPIRG did for the local elections. She thanked the Senate for involvement with V for Voting, phone banking, and invited them to other outreach opportunities coming up soon.

- Topher Williams, ASUM Transportation Board Chair, came to address Senate concerning the Russell Street rebuilding in Missoula. He explained the ASUM Transportation is advocating, along with Missoula Area for Sustainable Transportation (MAST), to change the design that is currently being proposed by Montana Department of Transportation (MTDT). He gave out postcards to send in to the Governor’s office and invited Senate to a public meeting on November 20, at 6 p.m. that ASUM Transportation is going to be in attendance of.

- Chase Ellinger, Student-At-Large, addressed Senate about the Ryman Mall and the Fox Squirrels on campus. He stated that the bricks on the Ryman Mall add a nice tone to the University and should stay in place. He also stated that the Fox Squirrels are invasive and should be irradiated or their population reduced. He stated that resolutions would be coming forward from him on the latter matter.

- Jule Oliviari, UM Student, gave an update on the Extra Life program and said that the UM Program made $820, exceeding the $500 goal. She thanked Senate for their involvement and asked for their continued support for future games.

President’s Report

- After discussion, President Hohman accepted a motion by Hazen-Williams to approve Sarah Smith as ASUM Senator. Unanimous consent was called by Mikkola. The Oath of Office was administered by Dean of Students, Rhondie Voorhees, and Smith was seated as an ASUM Senator.

- Professor Dane Scott, Director of Mansfield Ethics and Public Affairs Program, came to address Senate about the UM’s Statement of Ethical Principles (Exhibit A). He gave a report of the last year’s ad hoc committee assigned with the task of compiling the Ethics
c. Dawn Payne, Special Olympics Montana, was unable to attend, but will be attending on December 4, 2013.

d. Student Regent Zach Rogala gave a brief overview of the upcoming Board of Regents (BOR) meeting on November 20-22 in Bozeman, Montana. He said that there would be several issues discussed at the BOR, including Performance Based Funding, the Leadership Pipeline, Program prioritization, and enrollment. Regent Rogala acknowledged that student accessibility and quality would be the forefront of thought.

e. A motion by Green-Williams to approve and adopt UM’s Statement of Ethical Principles was made. Discussion was called. Previous question was called by Green and failed by placard vote. Previous question was called by Hazen and failed by placard vote. Previous question was called by Green and passed by placard vote. The motion passed 18-5 in a roll-call vote (See Tally Sheet #1).

f. Curry Health Center hired a firm to do a study on the affordability of the Student Health Insurance. President Hohman said that the firm recommended that the University continue to offer student insurance, but to look at other insurance options for the future. There will be conversations and informational meetings to follow and Senate will be informed of their progress.

g. President Hohman brought to Senate information in regards to the Campaign for a Presidential Youth Council (Exhibit B.1). After discussion, a motion by Williams-Hopkins to take up Presidential Youth Council Resolution (Exhibit B.2) was made. Unanimous consent was called by Chandler. After discussion, previous question called by Mikkola. The motion passed 16-7 in a roll-call vote (See Tally Sheet #2).

A motion by Thompson-Hazen for a 10 minute recess after the President’s report passed by voice vote.

h. The Governor’s Service Project is currently taking nominees. Senators are encouraged to nominate deserving individuals.
