Community planning conference slated in Butte

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations
COMMUNITY PLANNING CONFERENCE SLATED IN BUTTE

State and civic leaders, educators, and other community planning specialists from Montana and other states will attend the second Montana Community Development Conference in Butte, Thursday and Friday (January 23 and 24).

The two-day meeting, sponsored by the Montana State Planning Board and Montana State University, will be devoted to discussion of economic, recreational, and other aspects of community development in Montana, according to Dr. E. S. Chambers of MSU, one of the speakers.

Gov. J. Hugo Aronson, MSU President Carl McFarland, Montana State College President R. R. Renne, and Mayor William P. Donnelly of Butte are on the program. Other Montanans taking part include R. F. Kitchingman and H. Cleveland Hall of Great Falls; D. P. Fabrick of Choteau; James S. Umber, John R. Hallowell, Perry F. Roys, William T. Beaumont, and David K. Hartley, all of Helena; William J. Bowman, Doane Fessenden, Ron Thompson, and James F. Battin, all of Billings; R. C. Setterstrom, Edward Sletten, and T. S. Veazey, Jr., all of Butte; John M. Cross of Glendive; Michael E. Davey of Columbus; B. P. Haley of Havre; A. J. Mosby of Missoula.

MSU faculty members who will participate are Dr. W. Gordon Browder, H. K. Shearer, William S. Peters, Morgan D. Thomas, Robert Richert, Prof. Emeritus Robert C. Line, and Dr. Chambers.