Date: 2-29-84
The ASUM Central Board meeting was called to order by David S. Bolinger, ASUM President. Members present were Burnham, Butler, Dahl Feiler, Finney, Goodrich, Hafner, Hense, Hodge, Johnston, Josephson, Keyes, Weldon, Miller, Mitchell, Ong, Patterson, Pedraza, Wolfe, Jellison, and Gullickson. Desmul was unexcused.

The minutes of February 22 and 24 were approved as written.

President's Report

1. Three students representing the Montana Initiative for Nuclear Disarmament came before the Board asking them to support the attached resolution (Appendix A).

   Jellison - Miller

   Motion to not endorse the "Resolution Regarding the Montana Initiative for Nuclear Disarmament." Discussion followed.

   Wolfe - Butler

   Previous question. Upon vote, motion passed. Upon vote on main motion, it failed.

   Butler - Hodge

   Motion to endorse the "Resolution Regarding the Montana Initiative for Nuclear Disarmament." Upon vote, motion passed.

   Pedraza - Miller

   Motion to have only those Central Board who voted yes for the resolution to have their names appear on the resolution. Discussion.

   Ong - Johnston

   Previous question. Upon vote, motion passed. Upon vote on main motion, it failed.

2. Shannon Finney, Elections Committee Chairperson, gave the Board an update on the current ASUM General Election that took place today. She stated that since the entire Dec-20 computer system on campus went down for several hours today, the Elections Committee is giving those members who were not able to vote today a chance to vote tomorrow, March 1, in the ASUM offices from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Currently, the ballot boxes from today are locked up and will not be opened until 5:00 p.m. the following day when they are going to count the ballots. Finney estimated about 150 to 200 students were turned away today because the polls were not opened. In order to prevent students from voting twice, each student's name will be checked off on the three computer printouts used during the general election.
3. Gullickson informed the Board that Budget and Finance approved a line item change for the Student Action Center in the amount of $600 from 1226, work study students, and $300 from 2214, printing, to line item 1224, students non-work study.

Old Business

4. Bolinger asked each Central Board member on what they felt about the name change of the Student Advisory Council to the Montana Associated Students, Montana University System, and also the rules and regulations, etc., governed by the organization.

Johnston - Miller

Motion to approve the board policy, procedures, etc. for the Montana Associated Students (see Appendix B), so that this document can be appealed before the Board of Regents on Friday March 2. Upon vote, motion passed.

5. Wolfe - Pedraza

Motion to accept the ASUM Constitution as it is now written. Discussion followed mostly concentrating on the judicial section of the Constitution. Bolinger pointed out that the UM Administration feels that it is an administrative duty for the judicial system. He continued by saying that the Administration felt that a student conduct code should be put in the Bylaws so that there is room for change. Josephson stated that the Constitutional Review Board left the judicial system in the Constitution because they are recognizing right of the system. He felt to eliminate this section at this time would give the administration free reign with conduct code. CRB felt that all this particular section does is to state that it exists. CRB also stated that if this section was removed the Administration might turn around and say there is no remedy against Administrative action. Also, down the road they could say that since ASUM removed that particular section from their Constitution that it must not have been that important.

Feiler - Ong

Previous question.

Josephson - Pedraza

Objection to consideration. Upon vote motion failed. Upon vote on previous question, motion failed.

Bolinger informed the Board that he was told by Mary Beth Kurz, UM Legal Counsel, that she would advise Dr. Bucklew not to approve the ASUM Constitution if the judicial system is included.
Josephson pointed out that he was under the assumption that the ASUM Constitution was between the Board of Regents not the University of Montana.

Wolfe - Hense

Motion to refer back to committee. Discussion.

Josephson pointed out that ASUM wants a say in the judicial system.

Wolfe - Feiler

Previous question. Upon vote, motion failed.

Bolinger suggested putting something into the Constitution to the effect that the University Administration would still have authority to administrate ("a University administrative judicial system").

Feiler - Pedraza

Previous question. Upon vote, motion passed. Upon vote on main motion to send document back to committee, it failed.

Johnston - Feiler

Previous questions. Upon vote, motion passed. Upon vote on main motion to approve ASUM Constitution as written (Appendix C), it passed.

4. Jellison informed the Board that since she has received no interest for the dinner/dance she is abandoning it at this time.

Keyes - Mitchell

Motion that Dave Keyes will come up with a party for Central Board. Upon vote, motion passed.

Comments

5. Goodrich - Informed the Board that Jazz Workshop was rated number seven in the Student Survey as to which groups student's would like to see funded.

Josephson - Pointed out that the point brought up earlier concerning the judicial system, CRB has left a provision in the Constitution that ASUM has to reform to state law and regential policy and since the Constitution does say that ASUM has left provision in case it is deemed by a court saying that ASUM is operating against the law ASUM can change its Constitution to get it within the law without having to bring the Constitution before a student vote again. He felt that if the judicial system had a problem, ASUM can always change it without hurting document.

f. This section of the Board's manual shall be presented to the student legislative bodies of each of the six units for their approval.

g. It shall be the duty of each of the members to keep the student legislative body of their campus informed of the actions of the Montana Associated Students and the Board.
Keyes - Congratulated Sam Goodrich and Greg Gullickson for making UM Advocates.

Patterson - Informed the Board that regardless of the ASUM election's outcome, she is looking forward to the end and asked if we were ever going to have an end to these elections. Patterson ended by saying she is looking forward to celebration party.

Pedraza - Informed the Board that the Kaimin will be printing the ASUM Constitution just drafted in Thursday's and Friday's paper so that the Constitution can be voted on by the student body at spring quarter registration. The voting will take place next to the table where you get your I.D.'s validated. Ended by saying congratulations to Greg Gullickson, Phoebe Patterson, and Jeremy Sauter.

Bolinger - Thanked Elections Committee. Bolinger felt that the committee did a really good job. He also thanked Central Board members for a very responsible budget last week. Even though there was $115,000 more to spend, he still felt the Board was responsible and thanked them for working as hard as they did at this University. Bolinger continued by saying that he feels the Central Board members are all outstanding leaders to him. He also thanked the Constitutional Review Board members for all their work. He is proud of the document as well as Central Board members should be. Bolinger ended by saying that next week will be the last Central Board meeting with this Board.

Jellison - Addressed something from the Montana Kaimin about what Linda Lang wrote in a letter to the editor saying Central Board was being frivolous during budgeting, and Lang felt this was rude. Jellison informed the Board that Lang was previously a vice president herself of ASUM, and Jellison felt that Lang should have been more understanding. Lang's administration, Jellison stated, was a very controversial one. Jellison concluded by wishing all candidates the best of luck. Wished Keyes good luck with party. Since next week will be the last Central Board meeting with this Board, Jellison felt that perhaps the Board could do something special for the occasion.

Gullickson - Sympathized with Elections Committee and Phoebe because he could feel what she was going through. Gullickson stated he realized that Paula Jellison is not the only one who is overworked, and it is not a reason to disregard our responsibilities. He ended by saying as Carl Burgdorfer would put it, "You have done one fine job!"

Burnham - Stated it was great seeing everyone at the party who came. It was a lot of fun.

Feiler - Told the Board an E.T. joke.
Audience - A student came before the Board expressing his interests in the ASUM election process. He stated he felt that the Elections Committee did a fine job. He said the past years that he has been here, he felt that a very good job was done on this election. Unfortunately, he stated, the computers did break down. As a point of clarification as a voting student who has faith in the Elections Committee, if tomorrow when the elections will be re-opened and if the same computer printout sheets are used, he felt the committee would have difficulties. He stated that when students voted today they could have very easily have signed on the wrong line or signed someone else’s name to which they don't belong. He stated he would hope that the Elections Committee would have some type of back-up system to the back-up system used at the polls today. He ended by saying that re-opening the elections up for another day was a wise decision.

6. Pedraza - Feiler

Motion to adjourn at 9:15 p.m. Upon vote, motion passed.
