The Associated Students of the University of Montana
Resolution Amending GPSC Bylaws
November 10th, 2016
SB39-16/17
Authored by: Seth Barnes-Smith, ASUM Senator;
Sponsored by:

Whereas, the Graduate and Professional Student Committee (GPSC) was recently formed this past year;

Whereas, the GPSC is composed of five graduate or professional students from UM Graduate School and five members appointed by the Associated Students of the University of Montana (ASUM);

Whereas, four out of five of the current members appointed by ASUM are also graduate and professional students;

Whereas, graduate and professional students are often required to attend mandatory department meetings, teach classes as a part of teaching assistantships, provide a minimum of three office hours as part of teaching assistantships, correct work or exams as a part of teaching assistantships, complete coursework, and/or work on thesis or research projects;

Whereas, Article IV, Section 20, Subsection C of the ASUM Bylaws currently reads as follows:

C. The GPSC shall meet and hold quorum of at least six (6) voting members at least once monthly.

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, that Article IV, Section 20, Subsection C of the ASUM Bylaws be amended to read as follows:

C. The GPSC shall meet and hold quorum of at least six (6) voting members as needed.

Passed by Committee: ______________________________, 2016
Passed by ASUM Senate: ___________________________, 2016
