Old Business

9. The issue of the fee waiver for legislative interns was taken from the table. The floor was yielded to Mick Hansen, Financial Aid Director. Hansen reported that 20-25 students would benefit from the fee waiver. This would cost $8,830-$10,412 to cover the fee waiver for the interns. Fee waivers are actual cash allocations given to the University of Montana by the Legislature. This amount is approximately $900,000 each year. The Executive Board allocates the allocated money. They allocate the money based on mandatory allocations, special talent allocations, teaching support allocations and academic scholarships. Hansen suggested that ASUM submit a position paper to the President. Discussion followed. Upon vote, motion passed.

10. Sehnert - Schustrom motioned to amend the Personnel Policy by striking item 4.15 and renumber.

UM LEGISLATIVE INTERNS RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the University of Montana interns serving at various capacities for various organizations, offices, or legislators during the 51st Legislative Assembly are doing so with minimum financial support; and

WHEREAS, that support makes it an overbearing challenge for those UM interns to try to meet the basic costs of living; and

WHEREAS, those UM interns are performing their academic and work-related duties in a professional manner, providing a positive impression to legislators and other Helena-based professionals on behalf of all University of Montana students;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Associated Students of the University of Montana strongly urges the University of Montana administration to offer tuition and fee waivers to University of Montana interns for Spring Quarter, 1989, who are serving for legislators, political offices, or political organizations during the 51st Montana Legislative Assembly in recognition of their contributions to an increased awareness of the University and for the financial sacrifices they are making in carrying out their Legislative duties; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Associated Students of the University of Montana strongly urges the University of Montana administration to adopt a permanent practice of offering Winter or Spring quarter tuition and fee waivers to University of Montana interns who serve in subsequent Legislative assemblies for legislators, political offices, and political organizations.
