FOR RELEASE THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Montana State University President H. K. Newburn is one of two speakers invited to address the Oregon American Association of University Professors meeting at Portland State College Friday and Saturday.

The conference on "Faculty Participation in the University Government" is co-sponsored by the Oregon State Federation of AAUP and the Oregon Council of Private Colleges' AAUP Chapters. Educators from Northwestern states have been invited.

Dr. Newburn will present the administrator's point of view in his talk on "The Faculty and the Administration in the Governance of the University." Dr. William P. Fidler of the national AAUP office is the other guest speaker. The major addresses will be followed by workshop discussions.
