Carol D. Critelli and Maxine Blackmer join Montana State University School of Fine Arts faculty

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1160

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New appointments in the Montana State University School of Fine Arts include Miss Carol D. Critelli, instructor in music, and Mrs. Maxine Blackmer, part-time instructor in art, according to MSU President H. K. Newburn.

Miss Critelli taught in Colombia, South America, after taking a bachelor's degree at MSU in 1955. She has also taught music and Spanish in the Boulder, Colo., public schools and at Billings Central Catholic High School. She was awarded a master of music degree this year by Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. Blackmer, member of the Missoula County High School art faculty from 1956 to 1959, has taught evening classes and summer courses at the University. Her sculpture, ceramics and jewelry have been exhibited at the Wichita Galleries, the Denver Art Museum, the Oregon Ceramic Studio and other galleries, and a piece of her sculpture is in the permanent collection of the Montana Institute of the Arts in Helena.

Mrs. Blackmer is president of the Missoula branch of the American Association of University Women and past AAUW state arts chairman. She holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's degree from MSU.

###