I. Required readings for this course will be drawn from the following resources: Tribal Peoples & Development Issues, Genocide in Paradise, Faculty Pac.

II. This course is designed to acquaint students with Native American issues, as they relate to the impact that industrialization and global development has had upon Indigenous peoples.

III. Tests will be based on assigned readings, lectures, and videos. It is the students responsibility to keep up with the assigned readings, lectures and videos if they wish to maximize their best potential for learning and test grades in this course. Students should assume that where lecture material and information from the text cross, such information will most likely show up on exams. Lectures will be presented on the premise that students have taken the initiative to read the assigned material and are bringing to the class an inquisitiveness and level of participation that will spark discussions.

IV. Objective: By the end of the course students will have become familiar with the impact that corporations and development have had on Indigenous cultures.

V. Graded assignments:

A. Short Answer Exam

This exam will consist of 3 short answers (5 pts ea.) and 5 Identifications (2 pts ea.) worth 25 pts (12.5%)

B. Mid Term

The mid-term will consist of 50 multiple choice questions (1 pt. ea.) worth 50 pts (25%)

C. Research Paper

The final research paper must fall between 1,600 - 2,300 words in length, anything less or more than this will result in a lower grade. The paper must be properly referenced, with a properly written bibliography of no less than 6 references, of which only 2 can be from the internet. The final paper is due in class on December 5th.

If the paper is turned in late 2 points will be deducted for each day late. worth 100 pts (50%)

D. Group Facilitated Discussions

Each group will provide a summary and assessment of a video, or an assigned section of the course readings, as well as answer questions. It will be the responsibility of groups 1- 3 to obtain the videos they will be leading discussions a week in advance of their discussion so they will be able to preview it. Each group will be limited to 30 minutes to do this assignment.

worth 25 pts (12.5%)

E. Bonus Term Synthesis Paper . This paper should be 250- 500 words in length and should reflect an objective assessment of lectures, assignments and what was learned with regard to the course topic.

worth 5 pts

VI. Grading Scale : A = 181 - 200 B = 161 - 180 C = 141 -160
D = 129 -140 F= 0 -1 28

Academic Honesty: Under no circumstances should students represent another person's work or ideas as their own. To do this is to plagiarize and it is an intolerable offense in the academic community. Students who plagiarize will fail the assignment, and as a result may fail the course. Students should also be advised that they should not submit the same paper for more than one course.
