Students of MCHS and all Missoula grade and parochial schools will be guests of the Associated Students of MSU at the double header basketball game in the MSU Field House Saturday night, according to Earl Martell, director of student activity facilities at the University. This is an annual Christmas gift from the ASMSU to Missoula students, according to Rick Jones, president of the ASMSU, who extended an <sup>v</sup>invitation for the games in letters to all Missoula schools earlier this month.

Because of the double-header, starting time for the Saturday event will be at 7:30 p.m., Martell said, leading off with the Bemidji State vs. MSC clash, and followed by the meeting between MSU and the University of Minnesota, Duluth, team.
