FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, MAY 24

The Very Reverend Anthony M. Brown, president of Carroll College, Helena, will be the baccalaureate speaker at Montana State University, according to Dr. Robert Johns, president of the University. The baccalaureate service is scheduled at 8 p. m. Sunday, June 7, in the University Theater.

Father Brown's address to the 1964 graduating class is titled "Faith and Character in Higher Education."

The educator was named president of Carroll College in September 1962, after serving as dean of studies and associate professor of education for the previous two years. He served as superintendent of schools for the Catholic Diocese of Helena from 1958 to 1962. He was principal of Central High School in his native Anaconda from 1950 to 1952. He has taught in high schools in Indiana and Wisconsin and, in the summer of 1955, was a visiting professor at St. Bonaventure University.

Father Brown, the recipient of the first earned doctorate granted by MSU, received the doctor of education degree in March 1958 after having earned an A. B. at the University of Notre Dame in 1943 and a master's degree at St. Bonaventure in 1953. He took his theological studies at St. Edward's Seminary, Seattle, Wash., and was ordained in 1949. He has also done graduate work at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

Father Brown is a member of Phi Delta Kappa and other professional societies and is listed in Who's Who in the West. He is currently vice chairman of the Helena Adult Education Advisory Committee.
