Hanley seconded and the motion passed.

Bo Brown, Operetta Business Manager, submitted the budget for the Desert Song and also the possibility of running the operetta for only two nights instead of three, for Central Board's consideration.

Hanley moved Central Board approve the budget (attached) as submitted by Bo Brown, Operetta Business Manager, for the Desert Song.

Freeman seconded and the motion passed.

Castle moved that the operetta, Desert Song, be underwritten to an amount not to exceed $2,625.00, for performances the nights of May 11, and 12. This superseded the action taken by Central Board April 13, 1948.

Helding seconded and the motion passed.

Joe McCracken and Joe Heines reported on their trip to Chicago to attend the Intercollegiate Assembly of United Nations.

Mason moved Central Board accept their recommendation that the convocation or similar means of passing on information gained at the Intercollegiate Assembly of the United Nations, to the student body, be postponed until next fall when a similar assembly might be held at this University. Further, that Central Board authorize the delegates to contact other schools in this vicinity to see what interest there would be in staging such an assembly. Castle seconded and the motion passed.

The meeting was adjourned.
