FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Six business administration juniors at the University of Montana were initiated into their national, professional fraternity, Alpha Kappa Psi, last week, according to Fred A. Henningsen, faculty adviser.

The initiates include Francis D. Altman, accounting major, and Thomas K. Hopkins, marketing major, both of Havre; Victor Anderson, a management major from Port Chester, New York; Jeffrey E. Becker, a marketing major from Kellogg, Idaho; John F. Merten, an accounting major from Winnett; and Leslie P. Mullen, a management major from Billings.

David W. Hope of Hamilton, president of the U of M chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, presided at the initiating ceremonies and the following banquet. He is a graduate student specializing in accounting in the School of Business Administration.
