FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

George L. Mitchell, associate professor of business administration at the University of Montana, is the newly elected secretary to the Pacific Northwest Business Law Association.

The PNBLA meeting was held in conjunction with the Northwest Universities Business Administration Council meeting in Tacoma, Washington. The Business Law Association is an organization composed of faculty members who teach business law, and is a subsidiary of the American Business Law Association.

Mitchell has taught business law at the UM School of Business Administration since he earned his law degree here in 1962. He did his undergraduate work at the University of Arizona.
