Special Meeting
January 14, 1938

President Peter Murphy called the special meeting to order and presided.

Since Larson reported that he was unable to find a buyer for the Kaimin horseshoe table, it was decided to turn the table over to the Maintenance Department and work out some agreement about its use.

Due to difficulty with the Musician's Union if the Student Union sponsored the all-school musical show scheduled for Winter Quarter, Grace Johnson suggested that ASMSU underwrite this show and assume sponsorship of it. However, it was decided that the Student Union should continue to sponsor the show if an agreement can be reached with the Musician's Union, and if this cannot be accomplished, the musical will probably have to be abandoned for this quarter.

Adjournment.
