ESTHER ENGLAND SINGS TUESDAY

Esther England, mezzo-soprano, will present a song recital Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Montana Recital Hall, according to Dean Charles W. Bolen of the School of Fine Arts.

Miss England, a voice student of John L. Lester at the University, will be accompanied at the piano by Melvon Ankeny, Victor.

Prof. Gerald H. Doty, violist, will assist the recitalist in "Zwei Gesänge für Alt und Viol" by Brahms. Other composers represented on the program are Bach, Fauré, Schubert, Gluck, Mozart and Ivor Gurney.

A winner in both district and regional Metropolitan Opera auditions, Miss England has just refused a contract with the Metropolitan Opera National Touring Company in order to accept a Fulbright scholarship for a full year of graduate study abroad. She will leave for Germany in July, following graduation from the University.

Miss England has appeared in dramatic as well as musical productions at the University and is a member of Jubileers, Opera Workshop, Choral Union and University Choir. The versatile performer has been a member of the University Band and organist at the University Congregational Church. She belongs to Phi Kappa Phi and Alpha Lambda Delta scholastic honoraries and has held several music scholarships. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard England, New Plymouth, Idaho.

The program Tuesday is open to the public without charge, Dean Bolen said.
