BALAZS WILL BE
FESTIVAL JUDGE

Harold Balazs, winner of an American Institute of Architecture award this year, will judge entries in the second annual spring art festival sponsored by the University of Montana Art Department, according to Dean Charles W. Bolen of the School of Fine Arts.

The exhibition of sculpture, drawing, painting, ceramics and other art works is scheduled May 7-21 in the Music building.

Balazs, sculptor and craftsman, operates his own studio, Meads Art Work, in Spokane, Wash. He is a former member of the University of Washington art faculty. His work has been exhibited in numerous museums and churches on the West Coast.

Any University student may enter four pieces in the competition for festival awards, the dean said. Entries will be accepted Wednesday, May 4, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts building. The entry fee is one dollar.
