Leadership camp to hear Asian expert Dr. Robert A. Scalapino

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/1968

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
LEADERSHIP CAMP TO HEAR
ASIAN EXPERT DR. SCALAPINO

A recognized American expert in the field of foreign affairs, Dr. Robert A. Scalapino, will speak at the University of Montana's Leadership Camp at Flathead Lake Lodge.

Dr. Scalapino's speech is slated for 1 p.m., Friday, May 6. Leadership Camp is an annual gathering of University faculty and top students for serious discussion of campus issues and general improvement of the administration-faculty-student dialogue on the University of Montana campus.

Scalapino's talk will be entitled "Academic Freedom and Responsibility."

Dr. Scalapino has been a student of Asian and African affairs for many years. He is a political science professor at the University of California at Berkeley. He also taught at Harvard where he received his master's and doctor's degrees.

Dr. Scalapino has done extensive work under grants from the Ford Foundation, the Carnegie Foundation, the Social Research Council and the Rockefeller Foundation.

In addition to wide travels in the Orient, Asia and Africa, he has authored more than 35 publications.

Dr. Scalapino is a member of the American Political Science Association, the Foreign Policy Association, the Institute of Pacific Relations, and is on the Board of Directors of the Association for Asian Studies.