A law scholarship has been established in honor of Charles J. Dousman, long time Montana lawyer, by his widow who died in March, according to Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the University of Montana law school.

The terms of the will state the $500 a year scholarship be awarded to a "worthy, needy student at the University of Montana Law School," Lief Erickson, Helena lawyer and trustee for the Dousman estate, said.

Mr. Dousman practiced law for many years in Baker and was later in Washington, D. C. under the Roosevelt Administration. In later years he was an attorney for the Montana Water Conservation Board.

Dean Sullivan said the first Charles J. Dousman Memorial Scholarship would probably be awarded with the other law school awards in June.
