Rules of the Game
Submissions: All submissions must be in paper copy and turned in at the beginning of the class. No electronic submissions will be accepted. No late papers will be accepted.
Failure to complete an assignment can mean failure in the class.

Grades are based on a 100 point scale. 93 for an A, 90 for an A-, 87 B+, 83 B, 80B-, 77 C+, 73 C, 70 C-, 67D+, 63 D, 60 D-, below 60 F.

Grading Options.
According to University policy:” Courses taken to satisfy General Education Requirements must be taken for a traditional letter grade. Courses required for the student’s major or minor must be taken for a traditional letter grade.” This course is only offered for a traditional grade.

Drops require the consent of the instructor after the 15th instructional day. After the 45th instructional day, drops are available only in extraordinary circumstance and only through a petition that must be approved by the advisor, the instructor, and the dean.

Seek help if you need it and seek it early.

Style manual: Turabian or Chicago Manual of Style. Use the documentary note style. There are several useful sources on the web including:
Papers should be 12 to 15 pages in length. Please use footnotes. NO embedded notes. Please include a title page and a bibliography.
Portfolio. Please keep a portfolio of all versions of all the assignments in the order in which they were due.

Plagiarism (see the Student Conduct Code) means not just failure of the specific assignment but failure in the class.

According to the university catalogue: “Plagiarism is the representing of another's work as one's own.” It is a particularly intolerable offense in the academic community and is strictly forbidden. Students who plagiarize may fail the course and may be remanded to Academic Court for possible suspension or expulsion. . . . . Students must always be very careful to acknowledge any kind of borrowing that is included in their work. This means not only borrowed wording but also ideas. Acknowledgment of whatever is not one's own original work is the proper and honest use of sources. Failure to acknowledge whatever is not one's own original work is plagiarism.”

Students with disabilities will receive reasonable modifications in this course. Please contact Disability Services for Students http://www.umnt.edu/disability to provide verification of the disability and its impact and then present this documentation to me with your accommodation request (for which forms are available from DSS) at least forty-eight hours in advance of any requested accommodation.

Paper:

Papers are due at the beginning of the class hour. No electronic submissions will be accepted. LATE PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

When you write your paper please use the Chicago Manual of Style (Turabian) and footnotes. Do not put the notes in the text. Please double-space the text and single space the footnotes. All papers should be submitted with the usual scholarly apparatus, that is, title page, footnotes, and bibliography.
