MASQUER SHOW ENTERS
CLOSING CAMPUS RUN

"The Entertainer" by John Osborne begins its final four-night run in the Masquer Theater Thursday (Aug. 11). Performances at 8:30 p.m. Thursday through Sunday will bring to a close the ninth Masquer Summer Theater season at the University of Montana.

The fourth and final production in an outstanding season is a moving drama about a has-been vaudevillian, a sleazy character played in London and New York by Sir Laurence Olivier and re-created on the Masquer stage by Roger DeBourg, Red Lodge.

Other memorable performances are given by Georgia Tree, Billings; Gloria Sykee, Chicago, Ill., and Duncan Crump and Doug Dunnell, both of Missoula.

The strong supporting cast includes Harry Trickey, Trinidad, Colo.; Joe Ferrell, Lewistown; Dyan Roper, Cut Bank, and Margaret Pryor, Missoula. Shad Culverwell, Chewelah, Wash., is pianist.

The production is directed by Tom Gruenewald, visiting distinguished lecturer in drama, and designed by Richard H. James Jr., director of UM summer theater.

The box office will be open from noon to 8:30 p.m. Thursday through Sunday, James said.
