Report of song and yell committee

Report of publications committee. This report recommended that an amendment be proposed to the constitution of A.S.U.M. to include such a committee with powers and personnel enumerated in report. Motion made and seconded that report be accepted as amended. Motion carried. The complete report is as follows:

I. The publications committee shall have all other than editorial supervision over any special duties outlined for the committee by the Central Board; the advisory and cooperative capacity with other university publications.

The rulings of the committee shall become official and binding when ratified by the Central Board.

The Publications committee shall be composed of 3 student members elected each year by the Central Board and these permanent members:
1. Adviser of Publications
2. Adviser for the Frontier
3. Adviser for the Sentinel
4. The editor of the Alumnus

The Student Auditor shall be advisory member of the committee without vote.

II. The editor of the Sentinel shall be elected by the Central Board on nomination by the Publications Committee.

The committee on Publications was dismissed with thanks for the excellent work it had accomplished and was reappointed to make the by-laws for the Publications Committee should it be approved by student vote at the coming election. The committee is composed of the following members: Heloise Vinal, chairman, Eddie Reeder, Andy Cogswell, Bob Nofsinger, McFarland, Prof. Freeman, Dean Stone.
