Homecoming for Friends of the University of Montana Library is scheduled for October 7 in the periodical room of the University of Montana Library.

Edward M. Pope, vice president of the Friends, said the Homecoming meeting would begin with a social hour and tea at 3:30 p.m. being sponsored by the Library staff.

He reported Dr. Melvin C. Wren, professor and chairman of the University of Montana history department would speak at 4 p.m. on "American Educational Foundation since 1945".

The meeting and social hour is open to all interested persons.

Pope also reported one of the special projects of the Friends of the Library, the Northwest History room, is open daily during regular Library hours.
