Institute for High School English teachers planned at the University of Montana

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
FOR RELEASE

IMMEDIATELY

INSTITUTE FOR H.S. ENGLISH TEACHERS PLANNED AT UM

The University of Montana will conduct an institute for secondary education English teachers during the summer of 1967.

Dr. Agnes Boner, UM professor of English, will be the director of the nine week institute, which is supported by a grant from the U.S. Office of Education.

She announced the program will offer special courses in literature, composition, and language and will run from June 19 to August 4, 1967.

Instructors for the institute will be Dr. Warren Carrier and Dr. Merrel Clubb, UM English professors, Dr. Joseph Meeker from the University of Alaska and Sheldon Bewley superintendent of Missoula County High Schools.

Inquiries should be directed to Dr. Boner, English department, University of Montana, Missoula, Montana, 59801.