Whoever the charming university coed is who is selected Miss University of Montana Sunday (Jan. 8, 1967) in Missoula will probably "break a leg" in the grandest tradition of the stage.

Through the years Miss UM has proved to have considerable talent in the entertainment field as well as beauty, charm, poise and brains.

Any one of the 14 entrants in the pageant this year will be able to fill the bill. The girls hail from 11 Montana communities, two Pennsylvania communities and one Alberta community.

Highlight of the pageant will be the coronation of Miss UM 1967 by the reigning 1966 queen, Judy Stowe of Great Falls. Miss Stowe was also first runnerup in the 1966 Miss Montana Pageant.

Nancy Anne Fleming, Miss America 1961, will keep the show moving in her capacity as mistress of ceremonies.

The hometowns, entrants, ages, major field of university study, sorority affiliations and talent are:
