HS SENIORS WILL VISIT
UM FOR SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION

Approximately 30 outstanding seniors from Western Montana high schools will be interviewed on the UM campus Saturday (May 13), as candidates for five scholarships in education, according to Charles E. Hood, chairman of the UM teacher education scholarship committee.

The Montana Federated Women's Clubs, District II, is making available one $85 scholarship and two $75 scholarships for outstanding senior students who plan to prepare for elementary or high school teaching, and who plan to enroll in a Montana college or university for their preparation. The Women's Club scholarships are available to high school seniors from counties, including Sanders, Lake, Mineral, Missoula, Ravalli, Granite, Powell, Deer Lodge, Silver Bow, Beaverhead, and Madison.

Phi Delta Kappa, a professional fraternity for men in education has as one of its goals the encouragement of capable young men to enter teaching. IN an effort to further this goal, Gamma Zeta chapter at the University is providing one $100 scholarship to a young man interested in teaching.

The Ravalli County local of the Montana Education Association, in cooperation with the Hamilton local, is awarding one $100 scholarship to a senior from a Ravalli County high school.

Candidates are invited to the UM campus for testing and interview. They will be selected on the basis of high school achievement, scholastic aptitude, character and interest and evaluation of confidential recommendations.
