GRIZZLY INTERSQUD
SCRIMMAGE SLATED SATURDAY

Fifty-one University of Montana Grizzly grid hopefuls will invade Dornblaser Stadium Saturday at 1:30 p.m. for the annual spring intersquad football clash between the Coppers and Whites.

Head Coach Jack Swarthout and assistants Wally Brown, Jack Elway and Pinky Erickson are anxious to find out just how much their charges have learned in 19 practice sessions about the University's new Multiple T offense.

Swarthout and his assistants have divided the squad evenly for the clash, which will last the regulation 60 minutes. The only difference between Saturday's scrimmage and a regulation game will be the lack of kickoffs.

After each touchdown, the team scored upon will take over on its own 35-yard line. Assistant Coach Elway will watch the encounter from the press box, while Swarthout will watch from field level. Erickson and Brown will coach the Copper and White squads.

The scrimmage will be filmed to enable coaches to watch individual as well as team efforts.

Expected to bolster the Copper offensive, which features seven of 11 junior college transfers enrolled this spring, is former Grays Harbor JC quarterback Ron Baines of Tacoma, Wash.

Helping Baines in the Copper backfield will be senior Willie Jones, Monroe, Mich., and sophomore Doug Bain, Kalispell, at halfbacks, and senior Rod Lung of Placerville, Calif. at fullback.

Others on the Copper squad are quarterback Ron Mehrens, Butte; halfbacks Jim O'Neil, Edmonton, Alta., and Larry Huggins, Missoula; fullback Dan Crowley, Billings; centers Joe Slifka, Hyattsville, Md., and Mike Glennon, Billings; guards Dennis Johnson, Columbia Falls, Frank Young, Yakima, Wash., and Scott Torgerson, Lakeside; tackles Mike Grunow, Monroe, Mich., Mike LaSalle, Hamilton, and Jay Glover, Walnut Creek, Calif., and end Jim Kenyon, Missoula.
