BRENNAMAN'S CALL

Just one line of play-by-play before the commercial break.

Late in the day, late in the season,
but I remember how it went.

The field, half-shaded like a moon,
as the Giants snagged the fly.

Our best hope stranded on third at the end of the scoreless eighth.

Then the words, like the game,
somehow more than they meant:

"From sunlight to shadow," he said,
"and into the glove of Kent."
