Fifteen chosen for French honorary at the University of Montana

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations
Fifteen University of Montana students who are majoring in or have minors in the French language have been initiated into Pi Delta Phi, the national French honorary.

Mrs. M.C. Curnow, French instructor at UM and Pi Delta Phi faculty adviser, said the students were chosen on the bases of academic interest and interest in the language.

Those chosen and initiated during recent ceremonies on the Missoula campus were Merilee Finger, Bigfork; Karen Herman, Bozeman; Connie Byers, Kay Juederman, Joy Nicholls and Joyce E. Svingen, Great Falls; Mary Ellen Iserman, Hardin; Connie Graham, Kalispell; Jean Claude Lachkar, Miles City; Margret Hebert, Lee Lawrence and Ann Wright, Missoula; Carole Sandin, Philipsburg; Keith Williams, Townsend, and Lynn Carey, Idaho Falls, Idaho.