HONORARY ELECTS FIFTEEN
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA --

One faculty member and fourteen graduate and undergraduate students at the University of Montana have been elected to Beta Gamma Sigma, the national scholastic society of accredited schools of business administration.

Jack H. Doty, an associate professor of business administration, was selected on the basis of his scholastic performance while an undergraduate and graduate student and excellence of performance as a teacher.

Newly elected graduate students are Richard H. Boswell, Peoria, Ill., and Hugh Corn, Missoula.

The six graduating seniors elected are Lydia A. Faul, Helena; Connie J. Haburchak, Cut Bank; Luana J. Kaul, Hamilton; Donald P. Miller, Simms, and Ronald C. Phelps and Donald P. Heffernan, both of Missoula.

Those elected who are entering their senior year at the Missoula school are Harold V. Dye, Gregory L. Hanson and James D. Searles, all of Missoula; Betty L. Hamilton, Great Falls, Linda M. Potter, Niarada, and David L. Revell, Victor.

The national council of Beta Gamma Sigma permits local chapters to elect the top 10 per cent of the senior class, the top 4 per cent of the junior class and the top 20 per cent of the graduate students.

The Montana chapter requires a grade point average of 3.5 for graduate students and 3.2 for undergraduates, plus one year's residence at the University.
