KALISPELL MEN WIN AWARDS AT UM LAW SCHOOL

MISSOULA--

Two Kalispell men who graduated Sunday from the University of Montana law school were presented awards by school Dean Robert E. Sullivan on the basis of final grade standing.

Laurence W. Petersen was the winner of the Bureau of National Affairs Award, a one-year subscription to Law Week which is a national survey of current law. Petersen was adjudged by faculty members to have been the graduating senior who made the most satisfactory progress during his school year.

Petersen will be a law clerk with Judge Russel E. Smith of Missoula.

John R. Gordon was presented the Allen Smith Co. Award for excellence in scholarship. The prize consists of a nine-volume set of annotated statutes from the company, publishers of the Revised Codes of Montana.

Gordon has accepted an appointment as law clerk for Judge Walter L. Pope of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco.
