AND YET, CONSIDER THE GLOAMING

which suggests we have on our hands a poetic twilight.

You say that beautiful, that cool, and I wonder if you mean the dusk or me, somehow – I guess I know how I fit along the hem of your memory.

This is how it feels when something important doesn't happen – darkness drops Octoberly, certainly another word for it could be serenity.

I can see everything despite the dark (except my rolling eyes).

You yoke for it, want a statement – my windbent whisper: fuck you.
