COURSE DESCRIPTION
This literature-intensive course is intended to expose the student to a variety of essays addressing the balance of economic development with the principles of sustainability and social equity. The student is offered an introduction to sustainability concepts, natural systems/cycles and environmental economics. Natural capitalism and triple bottom line maximization is explored, along with the role of corporations and small businesses in sustainable development. A survey of issues surrounding corporate social responsibility and sustainability-driven innovation will be conducted.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE OUTCOMES
• Define sustainability; identify facets of conventional vs. natural capitalism
• Delineate natural cycles and ecosystem services and discuss human impact on environment
• Using metrics to calculate Ecological Footprint and carbon footprint; identify ways to mitigate impact
• Identify key issues surrounding climate change and discuss adaptation vs. abatement policies
• Identify characteristics of sustainable corporations and critically examine alignment of sustainability and economic development objectives; examine biomimicry as an innovative method of adapting nature’s best ideas for human use
• Outline principles of triple bottom line [3E] and the Natural Step framework
• Identify objectives and key indicators of corporate social responsibility
• Discuss social responsibility investing
• Identify trends shaping global markets; discuss product/process design considerations in a sustainable environment
• Articulate how the trend towards business sustainability is impacting markets, management and product innovation
• Critically analyze sustainability as a social vision and enumerate/discuss facets of a sustainable lifestyle
Course Platform & Materials

- You will need to access UM’s online platform (Moodle). All of your unit readings and assignments are posted in Moodle.
- Each unit on Moodle has a file called “Reading & Outcomes”. You will see that some of the readings are online and some are on Moodle shell.
- Online readings and powerpoints are also found in the list of weekly readings. Online readings are accessible by clicking on the link.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: Missoula College relies upon and cherishes a community of trust. I firmly endorse, uphold, and embrace the University’s Student Conduct Code. Even one misconduct infraction can destroy an exemplary reputation that has taken years for the University to build. Acting in a manner consistent with the University’s policies will benefit every member of the community, not only while you attend the University, but also in your future business endeavors. All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the professor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. Click here to review the Student Conduct Code.

STUDENT WITH DISABILITIES
Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. UM assures equal access to instruction. You must provide a letter from your DSS coordinator as outlined on their website so we can discuss your needs and provide accommodations throughout the course, including exams.
