11-29-1967

Lawyer to hear lecturer

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation

http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/3113

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
LAWYERS TO HEAR LECTURER

MISSOULA—

"Specialization of the General Practitioner," will be the topic of a speech by Geoffrey C. Hazard Jr., administrator of the American Bar Foundation in Chicago, who will speak at the University of Montana December 11.

Hazard's appearance is sponsored by the University of Montana law school, in cooperation with the Young Lawyers Section of the Montana Bar Association and the Montana Student Bar Association. He will speak on Monday, Dec. 11, at 11:10 a.m. in the Music Recital Hall.

Robert E. Sullivan, UM law school dean, has invited 13 regional Bar Association presidents and lawyers from throughout the state to hear Hazard's speech.

Hazard is a graduate of Columbia University Law School. He practiced in Oregon from 1954 to 1957 and was deputy legislative counsel for the State of Oregon from 1956 to 1958. He was professor of law at the University of California at Berkeley from 1958 through 1964. Since 1964 he has been administrator of the American Bar Foundation and professor of law at the University of Chicago.

Emmett Angland, an alumnus of the UM law school who practices law in Great Falls, will be master of ceremonies for the program. Angland is a member of the law school Board of Visitors and the Board of Governors of the American Bar Association.

The lecture is open to the public.