MISSOULA--

Sen. Mike Mansfield is tentatively scheduled to launch the lecture series bearing his name at the University of Montana on March 29, 1968.

UM President Robert T. Pantzer said recently that Mansfield probably would be able to deliver the first lecture in the program on that date and added that $124,000 has already been donated for funding the lecture series.

Entitled the "Mike Mansfield Lectures on International Relations," the program will be in honor of the Senate Majority Leader's 25 years of congressional service and the 75th anniversary of the University at Missoula.

A selection panel composed of 13 prominent Americans will recommend names of speakers for participation in the lectures.

Pantzer and other UM faculty members will make final selection of the lecturers.
