Course Description:

This class will provide an historical, literary, and filmic background for our trip to Australia. It will balance an emphasis on the past with an appreciation of the contemporary situation. Topics will include, among others, the significance of Australia's convict past, treatment of the original inhabitants, its relationship to England and the U.S., and its unique fauna and flora. Texts and films occasionally will be augmented by guest lectures.

Tests: The Fatal Shore, Hughes

A Concise History of Australia, Macintyre

Songlines, Chatwin

In a Sunburned Country, Bryson

Granta: Australia (if available)

Chant of Jimmy Blacksmith (optional)

(One more literary text may be added.)
