GRIZZLY WRESTLERS HOSTING TWO CATS IN DOUBLE-DUAL MEET HERE

MISSOULA --

Gene Davis' University of Montana wrestlers will be after their third and fourth meet wins without a loss Saturday when they host the Weber State Wildcats and Montana State Bobcats in a double dual meet.

The meet will begin at 2 p.m. in the Harry Adams Field House.

Montana State is considered a top contender for Big Sky Conference championship honors. The Bobcats finished second in the league meet last year after copping the league title two years ago for the third straight time.

Coached by Herb Agocs, the Cats have been a perennial Big Sky power, and often go outside the loop to meet tough opponents from major schools.

Weber State finished fifth out of six last year, but had one individual champion in heavyweight Jim Mott, who returns for his senior year of competition. Mott was a starting center for the Wildcat football team last fall.

The Grizzlies will throw two defending champions at the Bobcats Saturday. They are heavyweight Bill Gilboe, first in the 191-pound class last year, and 137-pounder Roy Harrison, who won at 130 pounds in 1967.

Davis has been working his team hard in preparation for the upcoming double-dual affair, pointing toward the Conference meet Feb. 23-24 in Pocatello, Idaho.

The Grizzlies have chalked up dual meet wins against Gonzaga University and the University of Idaho.
