2-13-1968

Blumberg elected president of journalism society

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation

http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/3317

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
MISSOULA---

Dr. Nathan B. Blumberg, dean of the University of Montana School of Journalism, has been elected national president of Kappa Tau Alpha, the society honoring scholarship in journalism.

As president-elect of KTA he will serve a two-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1969. He was elected by a mail vote of faculty advisers of chapters at 45 universities. Headquarters are at the University of Missouri, Columbia, where the honorary was established in 1910.

Dr. Blumberg is the author of a book and numerous articles on journalism and contemporary affairs. He is chairman of the Accrediting Committee of the American Council on Education for Journalism and is an elected member of the Teaching Standards Committee of the Association for Education in Journalism.