3-3-1968

Eight coeds to vie for Miss Wool of Montana title in Missoula

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Recommended Citation
http://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/3364

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mail.lib.umt.edu.
MISSOULA---

Eight university coeds from throughout Montana will compete for the coveted title-- Miss Wool of Montana--Sunday night (March 3) in Missoula. Four of the students represent the University of Montana, Missoula, and four are students at Montana State University, Bozeman.

The state Miss Wool competition begins at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Bitterroot Room of the Florence Motor Inn in Downtown Missoula.

A number of entertaining acts also will be presented during the pageant.

Winner of the contest will go to San Angelo, Texas, in June to compete in the National Miss Wool Pageant there.

Students from the U of M in the contest will be Margaret Barclay, Laurel; Terry Heine, Great Falls; Andreen Hubble, Missoula; and Patricia Wilson, Helena.

MSU coeds featured in the competition will be Jo Ann Alles, Billings; Jo Ann Haas, now of Hingham and formerly of Havre; Charlotte LaVold, Libby; and Sue Offerdal, Conrad.