MANSFIELD TO DELIVER
FIRST IN LECTURE SERIES

MISSOULA—

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield will come to the University of Montana March 29 to deliver the first of the Mansfield Lectures on International Relations which are being sponsored by the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Endowment of the UM Foundation. It will be open to the public.

The initial lecture is tentatively scheduled for a 10:30 a.m. convocation in the University Theater on the 29th. That noon Sen. Mansfield will lunch with UM faculty and staff members and spouses. During the afternoon the senator will meet with students for an informal question-answer period.

The lecture series, which will bring prominent international authorities to the campus to lecture on foreign affairs, has been funded with $124,000 raised through donations, two testimonial dinners and an art work sale.

The founding committee for the lecture series includes Vice President Hubert Humphrey, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, Governor Tim Babcock and UM President Robert Pantzer.

Co-chairmen for the committee are Sen. Everett Dirksen, Rep. Carl Albert and the other Montana senator, Lee Metcalf. Montana co-chairmen are former governors Hugo Aronson and John W. Bonner.

A jury of 13 prominent Americans has been asked to nominate speakers for the lecture series.

Assisting President Pantzer select lecturers and administer the series will be an ad hoc committee of faculty members including Dean Nathan B. Blumberg, School of Journalism; Prof. Henry G. Bugbee, Department of Philosophy; Prof. Mitsuuru J. Nakamura, microbiology; professor Robert T. Turner, history; and professor Ellis Waldron, political science.

The program was begun in May of 1967 by the UM Foundation to bring together Sen. Mansfield's two loves, international affairs and the University.
