FACULTY APPROVES FORMATION OF FACULTY CLUB AT U

MISSOULA--

Establishment of a faculty club at the University of Montana recently was approved at meetings of both the faculty and the Faculty Senate. A committee headed by Dr. Agnes Boner, professor of English, gave details of its preliminary study of locations, dues and facilities at the meetings.

UM President Robert T. Pantzer has offered the campus building which now houses the Clerical Service for use as a faculty club until such time as the University needs the space.

The club would operate 10 months a year and would be open five days a week for coffee, lunches, parties and other functions, Dr. Boner said. Dinners may be catered from the Lodge at the request of faculty groups and the club may be open on weekends for special events.

Cost of operating the club and furnishing it will be from $1-$3 per member each month, depending on the number of people who join the club. An initiation fee might be necessary.

"All faculty members will be polled on their attitudes toward a club," Dr. Boner said. "A large number of approvals will be necessary before any further work can be done toward establishing such a club."

Other committee members are Robert Blakely, director of food service; Robert Brock, assistant professor of foreign languages; Dr. Gardner Cromwell, professor of law; Mrs. Robert Faust, faculty wife; Dr. Thomas Payne, professor of political science; and Mrs. Albert Stone, faculty wife.
