17 EXTENSION COURSES OFFERED AT U DURING SPRING QUARTER

MISSOULA

Seventeen evening courses will be offered through the Extension Division at the University of Montana beginning next week for Missoula area adults.

The spring quarter classes begin March 26 and end June 7. A fee of $16 per credit is to be paid at the first meeting of each course. Mary Margaret Courtney, supervisor of the UM Extension Division, said a course will be taught during spring quarter only if enough people register to offset expenses.

Starred courses (*) carry both graduate and undergraduate credit.

Courses being offered beginning next week, the meeting night or nights of each, and meeting places and instructors include:

Anthropology *392, Proseminar: Problems of the Disadvantaged Youth, three credits, 7-10 p.m. Tuesday, March 26, Liberal Arts 302, Dr. Carling I. Malouf, anthropology professor.
