Montana's baseball and golf teams have been competing in their respective tournaments since Thursday.

Two unusual races are on tap for the Relays, including the sprint medley relay and the distance medley relay. Regular 440, 880 and mile relays will be run as well as a 440-yard weightman's relay.

Competing in the 440 relay for the Grizzlies will be sophomore Roy Robinson, freshman Bob Zins, junior LaRue Nelson and senior Tom Gopp. Gopp and Zins will also run in the 880 relay with juniors Dave Nebel and Carl Thompson.

Lewis will enter two teams in the mile relay. Running for the A team will be sophomore Daryl Gadbow, Thompson, freshman Randy Hahn and Nebel. B team runners will be Zins, sophomore Duane Spethman, junior Tim Stark and either freshman Ray Ballew or junior Mick Harrington.

In the sprint medley, which consists of two 220 legs, one 440 and one 880, Hahn and Nelson will run the 220s, Spethman the 440 and Ballew the 880.

In the distance medley (440, 880, 1320 and mile) Lewis will use Stark, Harrington, freshman Steve Linse and sophomore Ray Velez.

Running the weightman's relay will be javelin throwers Mike Lyngstad, a junior, and Dan Mason, a freshman, discus thrower Carl Erland, a junior, and either Howie Roth, a junior, or Mark Doane, a freshman, both shot putters.

Senior All-America Fred Friesz will be running in the two-mile race for the Grizzlies.
Going in the high hurdles will be Robinson and freshman Bruce Moerer. Freshman Marty Palagi will compete in both the long and triple jump events.
