GRIZZLY TRACK MEN HEAD BACK TO PULLMAN
FOR WASHINGTON STATE INVITATIONAL

MISSOULA--

Harley Lewis and 26 members of his University of Montana track team will be in Pullman, Wash. Saturday to compete in the annual Washington State University Invitational Track and Field Meet.

It is the second time the Grizzlies have been in Pullman this track season, having entered a smaller team in the WSU Indoor Meet two weeks ago.

Other teams competing will be Washington State as host, Eastern Washington State College and Whitworth College.

Several of the Grizzlies who will be competing this weekend made good showings last Saturday at the Banana Belt Relays in Lewiston, Idaho. These include javelin thrower Mike Lyngstad, distance man Wade Jacobsen and high hurdler Roy Robinson. Fred Friesz, who clocked his best career time in the two-mile at the Banana Belt Meet, is in California in connection with classwork and won't run at Pullman Saturday.

"Some of the kids did real well despite being hampered by high winds at Lewiston," Lewis said. "I just hope the winds are calm this week so we can get an idea of just how much progress we've made."

Competing in the WSU Invitational for the Grizzlies, by event, will be:

Pole Vault—Ron Baines, Tacoma, Wash. junior.

Long Jump—Dick Koontz, Billings freshman, and Marty Palagi, Great Falls freshman.
